

Learn to Identify & Record Wildflowers and Plants

With the Beautiful Burial Ground Project
St Mary's Churchyard, Caynham, Tuesday 13th July 10.30-1pm.

Photos: David Smart

This is a friendly and informal session suitable for complete beginners and those wishing to brush up on their skills.

Places are free thanks to the National Lottery Heritage Fund but must be booked. Book your free place with:

Eventbrite:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/identify-record-wildflowers-and-plants-caynham-tickets-158864372615>

Email: george@cfaa.org.uk

Answerphone: 01588 673041 (checked weekly)

The Beautiful Burial Ground Project aims to inspire and support people to learn about, research and survey the natural, built and social heritage of their local burial grounds. This project is funded by the National Lottery Heritage Fund and managed by the conservation charity Caring for God's Acre.

www.caringforgodsacre.org.uk

george@cfaa.org.uk

11 Drovers House, The Auction Yard, Craven Arms, Shropshire, SY7 9BZ