New local charity offers free one-to-one help for those who struggle with reading

Last year we appealed for volunteers to get involved in setting up a local branch of Read Easy and help adults who struggle with reading. We had a great response from local people and organisations and have since trained a group of volunteer reading coaches and started our first coaching sessions with new readers.

Do you know someone who would like to improve their reading skills?

It's taken for granted that we all learned to read and write at school. However, many thousands of adults missed out on the opportunity: research shows that over 7% of adults have never learned to read. Just imagine how your life would be if you couldn't read forms or letters, follow medicine instructions, or read a new recipe?

It's never too late to learn.

Read Easy Shropshire Hills provides free one-to-one coaching for adults who struggle with reading. The coaching service is designed to help new readers feel as comfortable as possible about taking the brave step to learn to read. Read Easy matches up a new reader with a trained reading coach to help them work together through reading manuals, at a quiet private location, at a time to suit them both. It's as easy as that! Reading sessions last half an hour, twice a week. Some people complete the course in as little as a year, while others can take more than two years. What's important is that everyone can learn at their own pace without feeling rushed. There's no pressure, and no targets or exams to worry about.

Learning to read transforms people's lives.

Through learning to read people grow enormously in confidence, self-esteem and independence as well as being able to navigate through the world of the written word. [cont on p3]

Steve proves it's never too late to learn to read

[from p1] Here's an extract from a letter Steve sent to Read Easy about his experience:
'It has changed the way I do things, my life. It's given me the courage to go out and do different things, not just reading and writing but going out on my own and mixing with the public. Five or six months ago I would never have done the things I've done, like joining the library, reading newspapers, going on public transport and going to coffee shops and the supermarket.'

How to get in touch. Read Easy Shropshire Hills covers the towns of Bishops Castle, Church Stretton, Clun, Craven Arms, Knighton and Ludlow as well as all areas in-between. If you would like to find out more, or you know someone who would like to learn to read contact Annabel Stacey on 07960 865564 or email her at shropshirehills@readeasy.org.uk.
