Jill Bufton writes: On behalf of Caynham church I would like to thank all who helped and donated items to the recent Primrose Coffee morning and making it a success. Around 40 people attended, some from neighbouring parishes, and enjoyed the bring and buy, raffle, and coffee and hot cross buns or Easter nest cakes. The churchyard looked ablaze with primroses and cowslips. £288.80 was raised at the coffee morning and several other donations have been promised. This money will help in maintaining the churchyard, as last year over £400 was spent to cut the cemetery grave area once as we do not have many volunteers to help. Any donations to the churchyard funds would be gratefully received.
